Comparing Types of Apples

After tasting the different types of apples, write an essay about the similarities and differences in the texture, smell, juiciness, and taste of each sample. Be sure to use your notes from your experiment to help you. Remember to check your spelling and punctuation.

_____