

Name: _____

How Many? How Much?

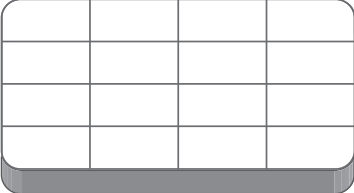

Use the recipe to answer the following questions. Remember to label the units of your answers.

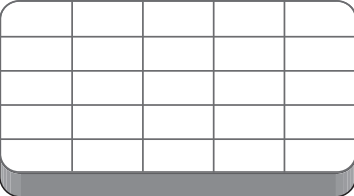

1. How many eggs does the recipe call for? _____

2. How much flour does the recipe call for? _____

3. How much cinnamon does the recipe call for? _____

4. If you cut the bars into four rows and four columns, how many bars would you have?  _____

5. If you cut the bars into smaller squares, would you have fewer or more bars? _____

6. If you cut the bars into five rows and five columns, how many bars would you have?  _____

7. Is that number (item six) more than or less than if you cut four rows and four columns? _____

8. If you needed to make two batches of the recipe, how much sugar would you need? _____

9. If you wanted to make half a batch of the recipe, how much baking powder would you need? _____

10. If you only had $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of vegetable oil, what size batch of the recipe could you make? _____