

Sample Lesson #2

- L.7.2 1. If a plural noun does not end in s, add an apostrophe and s to make the noun possessive.

Example: the children's corner

Rewrite these phrases, using the possessive form of the underlined noun.

the hats of the men _____

the whiskers of the mice _____

- L.7.3 2. Underline the simple subject in the sentence below; write the verb.

Is there a famous landmark in Canton, Ohio? _____

- L.7.1 3. Which sentence has a transitive verb?

_____ Mr. Meyers runs a large corporation.

_____ He has strong business credentials.

- L.7.3 4. Underline the simple subject; write the verb.

There wasn't any residue on the dishes. _____

- L.6.1a 5. Underline the transitive verb and circle the direct object in each sentence.

Uncle Will brought me to school every day.

I thanked him by mowing his lawn.

- L.7.1 6. Proper adjectives are formed from proper nouns and are always capitalized.

Examples: Italian painting, French bread, Atlantic salmon

Underline the proper adjectives in this sentence.

A troupe of Irish dancers will be performing Saturday evening.

- L.7.1b 7. Add a comma and coordinating conjunction to complete each compound sentence.

Tracy is representing Puerto Rico _____ Ricardo is a delegate from Costa Rica.

The General Assembly meets next month _____ we need to finish writing our resolutions now.

We will read the resolutions on Friday evening _____ we'll discuss the position papers on Saturday morning.

- L.7.1 8. Underline the prepositional phrase. Double underline the object of the preposition.

We found packages beneath the tree.

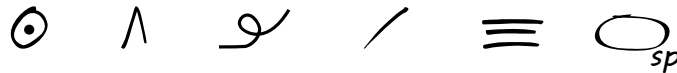

- L.7.3 9. Which type of sentence is this?

Cicely Tyson starred in the film version of Sounder.

declarative interrogative imperative exclamatory

- W.7.5 10. Draw each proofreader's symbol next to its meaning. (Check the Help Pages if you do not remember what the symbols stand for.)

Capitalize. _____

Add something. _____

Take out something. _____

Add an end mark. _____

Make lower case. _____

Check spelling. _____