Rules for Spelling

1. For words ending in s, x, z, ch, or sh, add -es to make the plural.
2. When a word ends in a consonant plus y, change the y to i and add -es to make the plural.
3. To make compound words, join two words, usually without changing the spelling of either word.
4. When adding a suffix to a word, the spelling of the word may change. The suffix does not usually change.
5. If a word ends in -e and you want to add a suffix that begins with a vowel, drop the -e before adding the suffix.
6. When a word has 1 syllable and ends in one consonant with a vowel in front of it, double the final consonant before adding a suffix that begins with a vowel.
