

Sample Lesson #3

- L.4.1b 1. Write the past progressive form of the verb do.

Geri _____ her homework when I got home.

- L.4.4b 2. Match each suffix or prefix with its meaning.

_____	pre-	A) more
_____	-er	B) full of
_____	-less	C) without
_____	-ful	D) before

- L.4.1d 3. A noun may be described by more than one adjective. An adjective that tells size usually comes before an adjective that tells shape.

Underline the adjective that tells size and circle the adjective that tells shape.

I knocked over the heavy square container spilling its contents.

A huge round planet was visible with the telescope.

- L.4.3 4. Which is a compound sentence?

_____ Have you given it your best effort, or could you do better?

_____ Cindy thought she could do a little better.

- L.3.1b 5. Write the plural of fireman.

The _____ came to speak to our class.

- L.4.2b 6. Add a comma and quotation marks.

You must stay for dinner insisted Aunt June.

- L.3.1a 7. Choose the verb that agrees with the subject.

Samantha (walk / walks) with the baby.

- L.4.2c 8. Decide which of these is a compound sentence. Insert a comma.

Is the restaurant still open or should we go somewhere else?

The Broadway Grille serves corned beef on Thursday and trout on Friday.

- L.4.1g 9. Write the correct word in each space.

they're their

there _____ are fifty houses on _____ street.

- L.4.4a 10. Read the sentence.

After hearing all the facts, the court handed down its judgement.

What is a judgement?

- A) decision
- B) punishment
- C) favor

