

Sample Lesson #2

- L.4.1g 1. Choose the word that matches each clue.

to join with a needle and thread

so                      sew

an animal that is similar to a rabbit hair                      hare

- L.4.2a 2. Rewrite any words that should be capitalized.

dr. and mrs. Goldstein visited ms. Snow.

---

- L.3.1a 3. An adjective describes a noun. Adjectives tell what kind and how many. Underline the adjective that tells what kind.

The nervous cat hid behind the barn.

- L.2.2b 4. Use commas in greetings and closings of letters.

Put the comma in the correct place.

Yours truly

Joe Black

- L.3.1a 5. An abstract noun names something you cannot see or touch.

Examples: friendship      fear      love      trust

Underline the concrete nouns. Circle the abstract nouns.

responsibility

loyalty

courage

desk

door

- L.4.3 6. Add the end mark. What kind of sentence is this?

Sometimes there is a rainbow after a storm ____

_____

- L.4.2d 7. Form the plurals. Change the y to i and add es.

story _____

berry _____

- L.3.1a 8. Underline the verb in each sentence.

The bears made their home in a cave.

Jeanie writes every day.

The playground closes at dusk.

- L.3.4b 9. Add the suffix and write the new word.

try + ing → _____

start + ing → _____

- RF.4.3a 10. There are many strategies you can use to read unknown words. First, look for prefixes or suffixes.

Examples: believable      pregame

Read each word. Underline the prefix or suffix. (Hint: One has both.)

prerecord

disagree

uncomfortable