

Sample Lesson #2

1. In a vowel pair, two vowels come together to make a long vowel sound. The first vowel says the long vowel sound and the second vowel is silent.

Example: nail or tray

Write the name of each picture. Circle the ai or ay vowel pair.

2. Remember: Words that mean about the same thing are called synonyms.

Which word means almost the same as pick?

laugh choose cheerful tiny heavy

3. Make each word plural by adding -s.

table

4. Add -ed or -ing to each word. Print the word on the line. Look back at Lesson #42 if you forgot the rule.

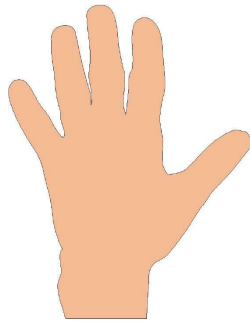

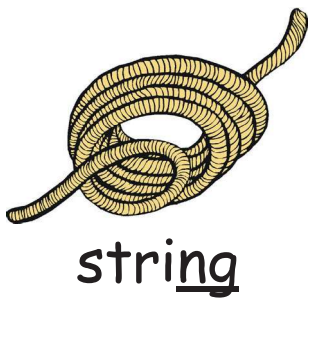

hum + -ed → _____

dig + -ing → _____

plan + -ed → _____

5. Circle the picture in the row whose name ends with the same blend.

6. Circle the word that will finish the sentence.

We planted a _____ in the pot.

sew

same

seed
